NEW SACRED HEART CONVENT SCHOOL

THE new school building for the Convent of the Sacred Heart, designed by Dickey & Newcomb, architects, will occupy 165 feet on Fort street with an entrance near the center of the two-story portion, from Fort street to the convent grounds. The aim of the architects has been to make a design which will harmonize with the present cathedral and at the same time be modern and convenient. The building will be about forty-five feet deep, with a two-story cloister on the garden side. These cloisters will be 10 feet by 105 feet. The one-story part of the building is arranged with small teaching rooms for the musical department. The first story of the main building contains two parlors and the three large rooms for school purposes, the second story five large rooms, so arranged with folding doors that they may be thrown together for social purposes. The style of this building is Spanish Conventual. The main feature is the entrance portal with a window over it

EMMA SPRECKELS-WATSON AND HER ENGLISH PROSPECTS

From over the water comes news of the social impression being made in Lower Kingswood Surrey, England, by Tom Watson, one-time San Francisco grain broker, and his wife, who was Miss Emma Spreckels, the only daughter of Claus Spreckels. Since their marriage the Watsons have spent most of the time roving over the world. They have spent much time in England, and now they have settled down at the Manor house, in a snug corner of picturesque Surrey, where Mr. Watson is fast taking on himself all the airs and the honors of a lord of the manor. Both he and Mrs. Watson have been giving dollars and time to the charities and the poor funds of Lower Kingsford. They have been active in church and Sunday school labors. They have entertained lavishly, and the story-telling broker has made friends so fast that a few weeks since he was elected chairman of a parish council, defeating residents who were both rich and ambitious. Being chairman of the parish council in that conservative section of the earth means the mounting on the ladder that leads to Parliament. It's an honor much sought after. If all goes well the next rung on the ladder will be the chairmanship of the district council. That office-holder is a county justice of the peace, ex-officio, dealing out small doses of law to the yokels who poach, and commit such misdeeds as are dwelt upon in Trollope's novels. After all this dignity the district chairman goes, usually, to Parliament, so Thomas Watson, M. P., is the near-by possibility. Because Mr. Watson's immediate predecessor as chairman of the parish used it as a stepping stone to the House of Commons, Messrs. Taylor and Wells were especially anxious for the honor, and they are said to have congratulated Mr. Watson upon his fortunate prospects of becoming an M. P. The interest of the Watsons in the affairs of the parish is shown by this comment in the Kingwood paper: "Mr. Watson has joined the Committee of the Mission Church. Mr. and Mrs. Watson have greatly helped on the work of the church in Lower Kingswood by the special interest which they take in the Sunday school. On several occasions we have had reason to thank them for kind help afforded." Several congratulatory greetings were cabled yesterday to the manor house of Lower Kingswood.

AFFAIRS IN SOUTH AMERICA

Strained Relations With Europe
Preferable to Supremacy of Yankees.

NEW YORK, May 30.—A dispatch to the Herald from Buenos Ayres says: The difficulties between the Minister of Foreign Affairs and the Spanish Minister here have been definitely settled. A commercial treaty between Spain and Argentina will be signed in a few days. In the negotiations for the new treaty Spain offered to make a reduction of 75 per cent in the duties on salted hides and 50 per cent on dry hides. The Spanish Government also declared its readiness to accord a reduction of 50 per cent in duties on Argentine wool. The Minister from Spain has announced that his Government will establish a free port in Catalonia. The Herald's correspondent in Rio de Janeiro telegraphs that the Tribuna, known as the organ of President Campos Salles, in commenting on the coming Pan-American Congress in Mexico, says that all the American nations are now trying to obtain Brazil's co-operation. Brazil, the paper adds, is not such a simple-headed Indian as the River Plate men believe. Brazil is convinced that Chile exercises only the rights which any nation has. Brazil, it is declared, will consider exclusively her own interests in the matter. The Rio de Janeiro Notizia, commenting on Vice President Roosevelt's recent speech at the Pan-American Exposition at Buffalo, says that Yankee supremacy in South America would be more dangerous than strained relations with Europe and that the republics must endeavor to avoid this danger. The Brazilian Government has resolved to reorganize the navy in three squadrons. The first will be under the command of Rear Admiral Justino Depoency and will include the Riachuelo, the Mariscal Deodoro and the torpedo boat Tamoyo. The second squadron will be commanded by Captain Calheiro de Graca and will include the Aquidaban, the Republica and the torpedo boat Tupy. Captain Pinero Guedes will command the third squadron, which will include the Almirante Barroso, the Tiradentes and the torpedo boat Timbra. The governors of Rio Grande North and Rio Grande South have declared that they will not support the candidacy of Rodrigues Alves for the Presidency. Rosa Magalhães, a prominent woman in Rio de Janeiro, has complained to the police that her two daughters have been induced to enter a convent as nuns against her wishes at the suggestion of their confessor. Anti-clerical manifestations are likely to follow. Word comes from Montevideo, Uruguay, that difficulties have arisen between President Cuestas and the National party. The party threatens to deny him its support and this may put the President in a very critical position.

THE RUSH FOR NOME.
Seattle Steamers Can't Handle the Passenger Traffic.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 30.—It is estimated that 600 men are in the city waiting transportation to Nome. "All sold out" is the invariable answer they receive at the transportation offices. The Senator, which will sail today, will have approximately 300 passengers, and the officials of the Pacific Coast Steamship Company declare that they could fill another steamer if they had one. The Senator has all the freight she can carry. The Centennial, which sails for Nome Saturday, will have in the neighborhood of 400 passengers and 1,500 tons of freight. A like number of passengers are booked on the St. Paul, which leaves June 8. The Valencia, which arrived in port from San Francisco yesterday, and the Humboldt are scheduled to sail Saturday. Both will have large crowds of people bound for Nome. The four-masted schooner Balboa, operated by the Northwestern Commercial Company, sailed for Nome yesterday with 1,500 tons of general merchandise, 300,000 feet of lumber and two lighterage barges. The cargo is the property of the company.

Struck a Vein of Oil.
WOODWARD, O. T., May 30.—Parties digging a well at Moscow, fifteen miles southeast of here, struck a vein of oil, which soon developed into a gusher. The oil forced itself to the brink of the well and covered an acre of ground before the flow could be checked. Moscow is on the Canadian river.

A Rainy May.

Funston on Peace.
NEW YORK, May 29.—A special to the Sun from Washington, says: General Funston writes from San Isidro, Luzon, the following letter to a personal friend: "Prophecies made before election that the re-election of McKinley would be the death blow of this bandit insurrection are being realized to an extent that no one would have ventured to predict three months ago. The Filipinos of all the central and most populated provinces of Luzon, including Manila, have formed a political party known as the Partido Federal, whose platform is peace under American sovereignty."
